The Funston men favored the motion but it was voted down and balloting was resumed. After 101 ballots the convention adjourned until 8:30 this morning.

JUNCTION CITY, May 18 .- As indicated in yesterday's dispatches, W. H. Calderhead was nominated for congress by the Republicans of the Fifth district on the CARTER GETS FIVE DAYS. first ballot after the assembling of the convention. The vote stood Calderhead | The Utah Train Stealer is Given a Light 63 Reistow 39

The resolutions adopted by the convention contained the following:
"Republican protective tariff laws gave

They opened every avenue of industry to Anoth our people and gave them remunerative onment with $25 fine, another five days employment and lestablished the fact that the best paid labor is the most efficient and more able to buy our home pro-right of self-preservation. They are measures of defense against adverse tariff laws of other countries and against the industrial conditions that exist under other forms of government that maintain themselves by holding labor in permanent dependence and support a hereditary ruling class out of the profits made from cheap labor.

"Our money, which is the most concrete form of property, consists of dollars which have equal debt-paying and purchasing power and do not shrink on our hands when received in payment for wages or products. We favor laws that will maintain this equality and secure 8 o'clock. the largest coinage and use of both gold and silver as money without destroying their parity and the largest possible use of paper currency that can be maintained without depreciation.

Mr. Calderhead, the nominee, was born in Perry county, Ohio, in 1844, and received the benefits of a thorough academic course of education up to his 17th year when, in August, 1862, he enlisted close of the war, receiving his discharge June 27, 1865. After the war he returned home and spent the next two years attending college and trying to recover his health, which had become badly shattered by his nearly three years' service. In 1868 he came to Kansas and engaged in farming, but gave all his leisure moments to the study of law. In 1875 he gave his entire attention to law, reading together with Judge A. J. Abbott, of Garden City, and later was admitted to the bar with him before Judge S. R. Peters, at Newton, Kan., on the motion of Hon. J. W. Ady. He then spent four years reading law in Atchison, and in 1880 located at Marysville and commenced the active practice. During his fourteen years residence at Marysville he has always been an active Republican worker, taking part in every local campaign and in the congressional campaigns in the Fifth district, Thrilling Scene Off Milwaukee This Morning.

The Storm in Other Parts of the Country.

MILWAUKEE, May 18 .- A fierce gale from the northward is raging on lake Michigan today and a tremendous sea is sweeping into the bay. Five vessels are at anchor under the government breakwater and with the exception of the C. C. Barnes, which is rapidly dragging towards the beach, will weather the storm. The Barnes is in great danger of drifting on top of the sunken schooner M. J. Cummings just south of the harbor.

The Cummings entered the bay at about 8 o'clock and dropped her anchors but they failed to hold, and the vessel drifted southward and shoreward until she reached the breakers when she evidently filled through her cabin and forecastle and went down in twenty feet of water about 9 o'clock. The crew took to the rigging, but people on shore say they saw two men swept over the stern of the schooner when she went down. The life saving crew went out into the lake and drifted down to the wreck of the Cummings. Some were seen to make their way down the ratlines as the life boat approached, but the drift hid the rescuers from view just at the critical moment when the men might have been rescued.

A huge wave then swept along and carried the life boat with its brave crew of rescuers towards Bay View, when they were drawn into the breakers and capsized. It is not known how the crew fared.

An unknown vessel foundered off White Fish bay at an early hour this morning, and a small craft is high and dry on South Point, south of Bay View. In the city trees were blown down, light structures unroofed and many signs torn from their fastenings. The life saving crew managed to reach the fire saving crew managed to reach shore safely at Bay View by clinging to the boat, which was washed high and dry. They returned to the station immediately and will take other measures to rescue the imperiled crew of the Cummings, one of whom is a woman, the stewardess of the ill-fated craft.

Work reached the city this afternoon hat four unknown vessels are on the beach between South Milwaukee and Racine.

HOW THE CYCLONE LOOKED Which Swept Kunkis, Ohio, Last Even-

The course seemed to be somewhat zig-zag and rolled from right to left as well as upward in its course. Rain came down in torrents. Where at 4 o'clock stood fields of wheat now stand ponds of water. All vegetation is cut off close to the ground. Hundreds of people from every direction flocked to the scene. The scenes around the dead and dving are heartrending. In one house lay the body of little Myrta Daso, while in another half mile distant lay the other on a cot surrounded by her grief-stricken mother and father. Mr. and Mrs. Cole are being tenderly cared for in other houses and all that medical skill and tender care can do is being done.

AT SHEBOYGAN.

Schooner Surprise Pounding Sand a Mile and a Half Out.

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., May 18 .- A severe storm, accompanied by a terrific wind, struck this city today. The schooner Surprise, of Chicago, lies in Lake Michigan one and a half off this port, pounding in a fearful sea. If her anchor chains break she will be wrecked on the beach.

Telephone, electric light and telegraph wires were blown down, small buildings were wrecked and several people injured by flying debris.

Indiana's Wind Storm. PERU, Ind., May 18 .- Reports from the country show the destruction by last night's storm. South of this city a large brick school house and five barns were leveled, with smaller buildings trees and fences. The Lake Erie night trains experienced great trouble with fallen trees. The storm was the worst in years.

MAJ. HUDSON AS CHAIRMAN

It Seems to Have Been All Arranged for According to the plans of the fixers in convention tomorrow. Major Hudson was elected a delegate to the county convention by his neigh-bors in Highland Park precinct, and in the interest of his candidacy fer state printer he wants to be chairman of the county convention. The major does not care so much about going to the state convention as a delegate as he delights in giving George W. Crane a black eye by presiding over the county convention while Crane is not even a delegate in the convention. Another part of the fixers scheme is to send State Senator W. E. Sterne to the state convention as a delegate.

It is true that Billy Sterne was defeated in his own ward caucus for a place on the ward delegation to the county convention. But he was only beaten one vote and his friends insist that in the excitement of the hottest caucus ever held in the ward Sterne was defeated by mistake.

The plan to make Senator Sterne chairman of the state central committee can be very materially assisted by sending him as a delegate to the state con-vention and unless the plan fails to work Senator Sterne's name will be in the list of delegates elected.

The men who have managed Major Morrill's campaign in this county, will insist on the delegates to the state con-vention being instructed for Morrill, but the friends of Major Hudson's candidacy for state printer are opposed to the idea of instructing for any candidate. They do not say anything about the printer-ship, but insist that Shawnee county, having three candidates for state offices, John Brown for auditor, Col. J. W. F. Hughes for secretary of state, and Gen-eral J. C. Caldwell for congressman-at-laryer should not effect to the congressman-atlarge, should not reflect on these candidates by instructing for an outside can-didate, for another office.

TO ADOPT A SILVER DOLLAR

American Bimetallic League Will Meet in Washington Tuesday. WASHINGTON, May 18.—Several hundred delegates are expected to be present at the convention of the Pan American Bimetallic league which meets in this city next Tuesday. They will come largely from the west and southwest, possibly a few from the east, four from Mexico, two from the central American states and two from Brazil. A delegate is also expected from New Zealand. This will make the third convention of the league, the previous ones having been held in Denver, Col., and Ogden, Utah.

Mr. A. S. Fisk of Denver, is the president and to him, principally is due the existence of the league, he having made a trip through the southern countries in aid of its organization. What the league is striving for, is to lay the foundation for the adoption of a silver dollar that will pass current between the United States and the Central American countries which it is figured, will result in stimulating trade relations between them.

tion will elect a delegation to the state convention which, though it may not be instructed, will probably be for N'ajor Morrill for Governor. If Topeka did not have so many political trimmers the delegation would be for Hoch. A month ago the county was easily for Hoch. Then when a few counties began to elect Morrill delegations, the Hoch men lost their nerve, and as soon as it became apparent that Major Morrill would be the nominee, a lot of fel-lows who were shouting for Hoch five or six weeks ago, tumbled over each other in their eagerness to get into the Morrill ranks. To hear them talk now you would think they were the first and only Morrill men. Another lot of fellows who didn't know which side they were on a month ago are also shouting themselves hoarse for Morrill this week. It didn't make any difference to them who was nominated-just so they got in with the winning side. When Major Morrill gets into the governor's chair, we hope when he passes the good things around that he will ignore office-hunting cowards who did not begin shouting for him until they tho't he was certain to be nominated.—North Topeka

TheConferenceAdjourns at Noon Sine Die.

CLEVELAND, May 18 .- The miners held a final consultation today, at which it was decided to continue the fight until the operators agree to restore the old scale.

President McBride made an address to the delegates, urging them to use only peaceable means to gain the desired result, and to strenghen their lines by extending organization. Vice President Penna said there was nothing left for the miners to do but fight, and they would make a hard battle. If the operators had made as strong efforts to be fully represented at the convention as had the miners, the meeting would have ended in a settlement of the differences at issue.

While the miners seem to be determined, it is believed that the leaders realized that in this time of business de-pression the odds are against them. The miners will attempt to organize the districts of Illinois, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, where the men are still working and get them out, but in the opinion of the leading Pennsylvania operators this will take so long that the miners now idle will gradually go back to work. CAUGHT IN HIS DEN.

Frank L. Turner, the Counterfelter, Captured in the Poppendick Building.

Last evening about 6 o'clock Frank L. Turner, the lithographer who is charged with making counterfeit money, was arrested at the old Poppendick building on East Sixth street. The instruments with which he worked were found in his room. After Joseph Teter, who was caught in the act of disposing of $1,000 of bogus money, had given away the secret impli-cating Turner yesterday, the officers cating Turner spent the entire day looking for Turner. They found his room on the third floor of the Poppendick building securely locked. A board was nailed over the transom and no sight of the interior could be obtained, but while they waited a rustle of paper was heard in the room. The door was broken open.

Only a few blows on the door were struck, when a voice on the inside called, "If you quit, I'll give up." The door was "If you quit, I'll give up." The door was "Joint Keepers" Bonewell and Voltz then unlocked and Turner was found much excited.
